INTRODUCTION: SCORING FORMS

CONTENTS AND ORGANIZATION

General Scoring Forms are provided at the beginning of this section and are followed by the Individual Offense Reference Sheets. The General Scoring Forms are categorized according to the twelve types of offender scoring rules: Burglary 1; Residential and Second Degree Burglary; Escape - Scoring Rule 1; Escape - Scoring Rule 2; Felony Traffic; Nonviolent; Nonviolent Sex; Serious Violent; Serious Violent Sex (Rape 1); Violent; Drug; and Violent Sex. Table 5, Offense Scoring Categories (page III-8), displays the crimes in each of these categories. The offenses are also listed on the top of each scoring form. The Individual Offense Reference Sheets are arranged alphabetically. The individual sheets for controlled substances, imitation controlled substances, and legend drug crimes are grouped together. Indexes are provided for each group of forms. Please note that the General Scoring Forms do not present sentencing option eligibility (e.g., work release, work ethic camp). Please refer to Individual Offense Reference Sheets for sentencing options.

The 1990 Legislature created a new finding for crimes committed with sexual motivation effective for crimes committed on or after July 1, 1990. The definition of sex offenses was also amended so that crimes with a sexual motivation finding are defined and scored as sex offenses. On the reverse side of most General Scoring Forms is a corresponding version for offenses in that category with a sexual motivation finding.

CHANGES FROM PREVIOUS MANUALS

The format of the manual remains essentially unchanged from 1995. An additional table indicating Initiative 159 reportable offenses (RCW 9.94A.105) has been added to the lists of offenses in Section IV, Appendix C. The remaining changes to the manual result from actions taken by the 1996 Legislature.

LEGISLATIVE CHANGES

The 1996 Regular Session of the Legislature resulted in a number of important modifications to the Sentencing Reform Act and related statutes.

Felony Classification

The Legislature, in RCW 9.94A.035, provided a mechanism for determining the felony class of crimes defined outside Title 9A RCW without a specific felony class. The felony class of these crimes is now based on the statutory maximum for the first conviction of the crime as follows:

Statutory Maximum	Felony Class
20 years to life	Class A
eight years to less than 20 years	Class B
less than eight years	Class C

Community Custody

Community custody, in the initial implementation of the Sentencing Reform Act, was defined as a component of community placement and limited to that portion of the sentence of confinement served in the community in lieu of total confinement (i.e., earned early release or “good time”). During the period of community custody, offenders could be returned to total confinement to serve up to the remainder of their earned early release time if they violated the terms of community placement. The process for returning violators to prison was administrative, not judicial.

The scope of community custody has since been expanded to cover the supervision of offenders in the community who may not have earned early release time. The period of community custody may also exceed the length of the total confinement component of the sentence. This variation of community custody already applies to graduates of the Work Ethic Camp program and the Drug Offender Sentencing Alternative (DOSA). Offenders are sanctioned through a Department of Corrections administrative process. For each violation, offenders may be returned to total confinement to serve either 60 days, or up to the remainder of their earned early release time, whichever is greater.

The 1996 Legislature expanded the scope of community custody further to include a mandatory period of community custody for sex offenders released from prison and sex offenders sentenced under the Special Sex Offender Sentencing Alternative (SSOSA). The length of community custody for these offenders is three years or the amount of earned early release, whichever is greater. In cases where there is no earned early release time, offenders who violate the terms of their community custody may still be sanction administratively and ordered to serve up to 60 days total confinement for each violation.

Two Strikes for Sex Offenders

Under terms of the “Three Strikes and You’re Out” citizen’s initiative, offenders who meet the definition of a persistent offender have a standard range sentence of life in prison without parole. The original initiative defined persistent offenders as those who are convicted of a most serious offense on three separate occasions (three strikes). The 1996 Legislature expanded the definition of persistent offender to include individuals who are convicted of a specified sex offense on two separate occasions (i.e., two strikes). The standard range for these two strike sex offenders is also life without parole.

Vehicular Homicide and Vehicular Assault

The 1996 Legislature made several changes to the guidelines for the sentencing of Vehicular Homicide and Vehicular Assault. These changes include:

- mandates two years community placement.
- changes Vehicular Homicide to a Class A felony.
- Vehicular Homicide by Disregard for the Safety of Others becomes a strike.
- changes Vehicular Assault to a Class B felony.
- in cases of multiple victims, each victim may be charged and scored as a separate offense, even if the victims occupied the same vehicle.

Drug Free Zones

The Legislature authorized local governments to establish additional drug free zones around civic centers.

Sex Offender Notification

The Legislature required registered sex offenders to give notice at least 14 days before an address change unless the offender did not know of the change in address 14 days in advance. The time allowed for registering after a move to a different county was reduced from ten days to 24 hours.

Exceptional Sentence Reasons

Exceptional sentence reasons were modified including:

- The current offense was a violent offense and the defendant knew the victim was pregnant (aggravated)
- Multiple victims in vehicular homicides (removed as aggravating reason)
- Multiple victims in vehicular assaults (removed as aggravating reason)

Changes to Specific Offenses

The 1996 Regular Session of the Legislature enacted a number of pieces of legislation affecting felonies sentenced under the Sentencing Reform Act. These pieces of legislation created new ranked felonies, amended the felony class of some offenses, and modified the definition of others. These changes, including effective dates, are reflected in the felony lists in Section IV and are summarized in Table 4.

SENTENCE RANGES FOR ANTICIPATORY DRUG OFFENSES

The appropriate sentence ranges for anticipatory offenses (attempts, solicitations, and conspiracies) involving violations of the Uniform Controlled Substances Act (VUCSA) have been clarified through a series of court decisions and legislative actions. Table 6 presents the current status of statute and case law on appropriate sentence ranges for anticipatory violations of the Uniform Controlled Substances Act.

Table 6. Sentence Ranges for Anticipatory Drug Offenses

	SENTENCE RANGE	STATUTE
Attempt Delivery	Unranked (0 to 12)	RCW 69.50.407
Possession	Unranked (0 to 12)	RCW 69.50.407
Solicitation* Delivery	75% of Standard Range	RCW 9A.28.030
Possession	75% of Standard Range	RCW 9A.28.030
Conspiracy Delivery	Unranked (0 to 12)	RCW 69.50.407
Possession	Unranked (0 to 12)	RCW 69.50.407

*Solicitations drop one class from the underlying offense (e.g., a solicitation to commit a Class B felony is a Class C felony). Solicitations to commit Class C felonies are gross misdemeanors.

RELEVANT STATUTES

RCW 9A.28.020 Criminal attempt. (1) A person is guilty of an attempt to commit crime if, with intent to commit a specific crime, he does any act which is a substantial step toward the commission of that crime.

(2) If the conduct in which a person engages otherwise constitutes an attempt to commit a crime, it is no defense to a prosecution of such attempt that the crime charged to have been attempted was, under the attendant circumstances, factually or legally impossible of commission.

(3) An attempt to commit a crime is a:

(a) Class A felony when the crime attempted is murder in the first degree or arson in the first degree;

(b) Class B felony when the crime attempted is a Class A felony other than murder in the first degree or arson in the first degree;

(c) Class C felony when the crime attempted is a Class B felony;

(d) Gross misdemeanor when the crime attempted is a Class C felony;

(e) Misdemeanor when the crime attempted is a gross misdemeanor or misdemeanor.

RCW 9A.28.030 Criminal solicitation. (1) A person is guilty of criminal solicitation when, with intent to promote or facilitate the commission of a crime, he offers to give or gives money or other thing of value to another to engage in specific conduct which would constitute such crime or which would establish complicity of such other person in its commission or attempted commission had such crime been attempted or committed.

(2) Criminal solicitation shall be punished in the same manner as criminal attempt under RCW 9A.28.020.

RCW 9A.28.040 Criminal conspiracy. (1) A person is guilty of criminal conspiracy when, with intent that conduct constituting a crime be performed, he agrees with one or more persons to engage in or cause the performance of such conduct, and any one of them takes a substantial step in pursuance of such agreement.

(2) It shall not be a defense to criminal conspiracy that the person or persons with whom the accused is alleged to have conspired:

- (c) Is not amenable to justice; or
- (d) Has been acquitted; or
- (e) Lacked the capacity to commit an offense.

(3) Criminal conspiracy is a:

(a) Class A felony when an object of the conspiratorial agreement is murder in the first degree;

(b) Class B felony when an object of the conspiratorial agreement is a Class A felony other than murder in the first degree;

(c) Class C felony when an object of the conspiratorial agreement is a Class B felony;

(d) Gross misdemeanor when an object of the conspiratorial agreement is a Class C felony;

(e) Misdemeanor when an object of the conspiratorial agreement is a gross misdemeanor or misdemeanor.

RCW 9A.28.040 Anticipatory offenses. For persons convicted of the anticipatory offenses of criminal attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy under chapter 9A.28 RCW, the presumptive sentence is determined by locating the sentencing grid sentence range defined by the appropriate offender score and the seriousness level of the crime, and multiplying the range by 75 percent.

In calculating an offender score, count each prior conviction as if the present conviction were for the completed offense. When these convictions are used as criminal history, score them the same as a completed crime.

RCW 69.50.101(f) "Deliver" or "delivery" means the actual or constructive transfer from one person to another of a controlled substance, whether or not there is an agency relationship.

RCW 69.50.407 Conspiracy. Any person who attempts or conspires to commit any offense defined in this chapter is punishable by imprisonment or fine or both which may not exceed the maximum punishment prescribed for the offense, the commission of which was the object of the attempt or conspiracy.
